Basic Use Case Document

Name:	User Logs In To Online Retailer
Summary:	User attempts to use features of the online retailer site that require a valid account. They will be prompted for their credentials, logged in, and granted access to additional features such as their wishlist, sharing a link by email, and checking out with saved addresses/payment methods.
Version:	1.0
Preconditions:	<ol> <li>Access to internet and capable browser(Firefox, Chrome, Opera, Edge, Safari)</li> <li>Page is loaded and prompts user for login credentials</li> <li>User has valid credentials (username, password) and is able to enter them</li> <li>Not visiting from a public/commercial VPN or blacklisted IP</li> </ol>
Triggers:	<ol> <li>Clicks the account option of the retailer's website</li> <li>Selects checkout option</li> <li>Clicks to add item to wishlist</li> <li>Share item link via email</li> </ol>
Main Success	User fills in username and password fields
Scenario:	2. User is logged into the online retail site
Alternative Success Scenarios:	<ol> <li>A new user does not have an account</li> <li>1.2 The new user creates account and logs in</li> <li>User has forgotten their password</li> <li>2.2 User follows steps to reset their password via email</li> <li>2.3 User logs in with new credentials</li> </ol>
Postconditions:	1. User is logged into their account successfully
Business Rules:	<ol> <li>Username must be valid</li> <li>Password must match valid username</li> <li>VPN/Blacklited IP not in use</li> <li>Capable browser</li> <li>Less than 10 login attempts per 2 minutes</li> </ol>
Author:	Cameron Milstead
Date:	December 5 th 2018